Jeremiah Bosgang and his wife, Wendy Perelman, have lived in Sands Point for over 20 years. They have raised and educated their children here.

Jeremiah spent 30 years as an executive in the entertainment industry, working on hit shows like SNL and Seinfeld. For the last 13 years, he's been leading the Sands Point Preserve, building community programming, carrying out historic preservation, and building economic development. Jeremiah has proven that he can consistently balance fiscal responsibility with building strong organizational structures that empower teams to succeed.

Jeremiah's Promise to Sands Point Families:

- ✓ Establish transparency in government, financial discipline and good management.
- ✓ Restore respectful, neighborly government that works with residents and our community organizations.
- ✓ Re-establish community participation and engagement.

On June 17th, let's elect Jeremiah Mayor.
